Dear Ron,

Not knowing how much attention the enclosed story from this a.m.'s Wash. Post will get in NYC, I'm sending you this not-quite-complete copy.

You may now remember that I told you so some time ago, when I thought that with a very small amount of help much could be done, including a book I then tentatively titled The Rap Rap.

As with King, where I approached perhaps 100 people supposedly his friends, nobody cared (which some day will be another title).

This is not the only frame in that case. So is the bombing, rather, both bombings.

Hope you are all well, and proppering.

Best,
